I agree to participate, or my child/children, _____, (listed above) have my permission to participate any KHJA show for the current year. Every class entry at a KHJA competition shall constitute an agreement and affirmation that all participants (which included without limitation, the owner, lessee, trainer, manager, agent, coach, driver, handler, rider and horse) for themselves, their principle, representatives, employees and agents; (1) Agree to hold the competition, its managers, officials, employees and agents, the facility owners and operators and the KHJA and its Board of Directors harmless for any action taken; and (2) Agree that they participate voluntarily in the competition fully aware that horse sports and the competition involve inherent dangerous risk of serious injury or death. In participation they expressly assume any and all risks of injury or loss and they agree to indemnify the KHJA and its Board of Directors harmless from and against all claims including for any injury or loss suffered during or in connection with the competition whether or not such injury, claim or loss resulted directly or indirectly from the negligent acts or omissions of said competition, its employees and agents or the facility owners and operators.

WARNING: Under Kansas law, there is no liability for an injury to or the death of a participant in domestic animal activities resulting from the inherent risks of domestic animal activities, pursuant to section 1 through 4. You are assuming the risk of participating in this domestic animal activity. K.S.A. 60-4001 through 60-4004. Inherent risks of domestic animal activities include, but shall not be limited to: (1) The propensity of a domestic animal to behave in ways, i.e. running, bucking, biting, kicking, shying, stumbling, rearing, falling or stepping on, that may result in an injury, harm or death to persons on or around them; (2) The unpredictability of a domestic animal's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals; (3) certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions; (4) collision with other domestic animals or objects, and (5) the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the domestic animal or not acting within such participant's ability.
